RMLS Opens Salem Office, Incorporates Pendleton-area Realtors

Portland, Ore. – Regional Multiple Listing Service (RMLS™) is pleased to announce the opening of its Salem, Oregon branch office, as well as the addition of the Umatilla County Board of Realtors in Pendleton, Oregon.

The Salem office will be a welcome addition for the more than 400 RMLS subscribers in the area, as they will have immediate access to hands-on technical training, lockbox services and more. The office is conveniently located in the same building as the Oregon Association of Realtors; 2110 Mission Street SE, Suite 305.

Additionally, the Umatilla County Board of Realtors recently voted to join RMLS and switched from its current Multiple Listing Service (MLS) provider to RMLS, which has now added its approximately 4,500 listings to the private RMLSweb database, a fully searchable online-MLS system for RMLS subscribers, which contains more than 35,000 active residential listings and more than 950,000 total listings.

RMLS has opened three other offices this year in Hood River, Hermiston and Coos Bay and has added three other Realtor groups this year; they include: Columbia Basin Board of Realtors (Hermiston, Oregon), Union County Board of Realtors, and Baker County Board of Realtors.
