New Web site from Regional Multiple Listing Service (RMLS™) allows REALTORS® to easily post property records to REALTOR.com®

PORTLAND, Ore. – RMLS™, the Northwest's largest REALTOR®-owned Multiple Listing Service (MLS), is pleased to announce the launch of RMLS*lite*, a Web site that allows non-RMLS™ subscribers in Washington and Oregon to easily post their property records to REALTOR.com®. Users must be licensed REALTORS® who have a valid National Association of REALTORS® (NAR) membership ID.

RMLS*lite* presents a solution for REALTORS® who do not have the data exchange capabilities to submit properties to REALTOR.com®. RMLS™ already provides this service to its more than 13,000 REALTOR® subscribers throughout Oregon and Washington.

REALTOR.com®, the official site of NAR, is the top consumer destination for real estate related information with more than 6.5 million monthly unique users and has the largest online database of homes for sale.

As part of the launch, REALTORS® are invited to post property records on REALTOR.com® for free via www.RMLSlite.com during its introductory period, now through July 31. After the trial period, property records will cost five dollars each.
